FINAL FOUR. The Seton women's basketball team is in the Final Four of the independent schools tournament. They will play in Richmond tomorrow, Friday, at 7:00 PM. We will be sending a bus for students. Board the bus at 4:00 PM at Seton. The cost for the bus is $15 per person, paid to Seton. The admission to the game is TBD, paid at the door. Dress code is modest casual, No shorts Jeans are permitted, Seats on the bus are first come-first served for students who have a signed permission slip (available at the office) and the bus fee,

If parents would like to go, please call or e-mail the office immediately so that we can order another bus if needed., We would need enough people to fill the second bus in order to afford the bus.

If the girls win on Friday, they will play in the championship on Saturday at 5:00 PM in Richmond. We will be surveying the students to see how many would ride the bus on Saturday.to determine if we should order a bus for Saturday.

Course Scheduling for 2017-2018

All rising Seniors should have met with either Mrs. O'Herron or Mr. Vander Woude and submitted their course schedule requests for next year. If you missed your meeting, please contact the office or guidance ASAP! If you are signing up for Dual Enrollment please see Mrs. McIntyre so we can begin the process of enrolling you at NOVA. Rising Junior meetings will begin next week. All juniors will receive an email through Jupiter Ed with their meeting times and all other pertinent info. The documents are also posted on the Guidance page of the website and in the Downloads tab of Jupiter Ed.

Seton Spirit Ad Campaign Update

The February 27th deadline has come and gone! A big thank you to all Seton families who have met their family goal and have submitted their ads! We are most appreciative! We have now reached 70% of our school goal! A big congratulations goes to the Junior Class for winning the Dress Down Day in April! They had the highest sales based on their class goal. More details will follow regarding the designated date. Congratulations also to the 7th grade class for coming in 2nd! Reminder - If your family has not submitted your $350 buyout to the Seton Front Office, please do so soon and help the student body will receive a day off in May!

2017 AP Registration Deadline is Tomorrow, March 3!

Don't forget to complete the registration form and submit payment by Friday, March 3, if you plan to take any AP exams in May. Additional copies of the Bulletin and registration forms are available in the main office at school. The registration form and additional information can also be downloaded from the guidance page on the Seton website. Both parents and students should read the Bulletin which contains the AP exam schedule, cost, and testing policies before registering.

Come join Semper Ridiculum, Seton's own long-running Improv Comedy Troupe, for their 26th live show! The best and brightest young stars in Comedy will perform their signature make-it-all-up-as-they-go program on Saturday, March 4 at 7:30 PM in Faustina. All seats are only $5 and the proceeds go to support arts programs at Seton School!

Seton Retreats 2017

Ladies' Retreat, Monday, March 20, 8:15 AM – 3:00 PM. Boys do not come to school. Retreat Leaders will be Carmen Briceno and Fr. Noah Morey of All Saints

Men's Retreat, Tuesday, March 21, 8:15 AM – 3:00 PM. Girls do not come to school. Retreat Leader will be Fr. Colin Davis of Church of St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception

Bring your lunch. Both retreats will take place on the Seton School campus and will end at 3:00, not 2:40. Students should bring lunch as there will be no off campus privileges. Chaperones, both teacher and parent, will also need to bring their own lunches as lunch will be provided only for the retreat leaders and priests.

Chaperones. Parents, if you volunteered to chaperone and are still able to do so, please contact Laurinda Lucas by phone: 703-369-0718 or email: rindave@comcast.net
