

SETON SCHOOL

“Let His will of the present moment be the first rule of our daily life and work.” –Elizabeth Ann Seton

Feast of St. John Vianney

Dear Parents:

A brief survey of what some of our recent alumni are doing: Head of the pro-life group at UVA, active in the Catholic Campus Ministry at George Mason, missionaries for FOCUS, mission work in Honduras, two new seminarians for the Diocese of Arlington, two new candidates for the cloistered Dominicans in Linden, active in apostolates at Notre Dame, medical school, law school, service academies, married and giving birth to the next generation of Seton students.

As you can see, the education provided on the corner of Maple and Quarry is having an effect far beyond our boundaries.

Seton is able to provide a solidly Catholic, academically challenging education even though our tuition is little more than half that of diocesan high schools and is about the same or lower than many grade schools, which receive parish subsidies. We are able to keep our tuition low because our teachers are self-sacrificing, we are prudent with expenditures, and you parents are generous with your volunteer time and with your donations.

So we are asking you now to consider making a pledged monthly donation to help Seton meet its expenses. You are benefiting from our low tuition rates. A way to say thank you is by making a pledged donation. Remember, donations are tax-deductible, whereas tuition is not.

Please consider making your most generous pledge. If each family donated $50 each month, we could meet our important needs. Some of you will be able to give more, others less. We will be grateful for each donation received, and you will know that your financial sacrifice is showing your support for our committed teachers and Seton's mission of teaching the Faith and the truth.

The enclosed form describes the options you have for making your donation. You may use whatever method of payment is most convenient for you.

We ask those of you are unable to make any donation at this time to make a promise of prayers. We need your prayers so that we may continue to form your children in the Faith and in the truth.

Please pray about this matter, and ask God to guide you in your decision. We ask you to fill out the enclosed form and return it to the office at your earliest convenience. We appreciate your cooperation so that we can have one hundred percent response to this appeal. Help us to form this generation of Conquistadors who will defend the Faith and fulfill the Holy Father's call for a new evangelization.

May God grant your family a grace-filled school year.

Sincerely in Christ the King,
Anne W. Carroll, Director
