

SETON SCHOOL

"Let His will of the present moment be the first rule of our daily life and work." –Elizabeth Ann Seton

July 31, 2018

Feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola

Dear Parents:

Here's a short excerpt from a letter received from an alum: Thanks to Seton religion classes, "I have been able to explain my faith to a Baptist woman who experienced Eucharistic adoration, a Jewish man married to a fallen-away Catholic, a lady minister who wanted to understand Mary, a nurse seeking to understand forgiveness and countless other curious about the Catholic faith."

Not all Seton graduates have quite such varied opportunities for evangelization, but many frequently express their gratitude for what they learned here. And do you know who else thinks Seton is providing a strong Catholic education? Bishop Michael Burbidge, who visited us last spring and has often expressed his eagerness to visit us again.

Seton is able to provide a solidly Catholic, academically challenging education even though our tuition is little more than half that of diocesan high schools and is about the same or lower than many grade schools, which receive parish subsidies. We are able to keep our tuition low because our teachers are self-sacrificing, we are prudent with expenditures, and you parents are generous with your volunteer time and with your donations.

So we are asking you now to consider making a pledged monthly donation to help Seton meet its expenses. You are benefiting from our low tuition rates. A way to say thank you is by making a pledged donation. Remember, donations are tax-deductible, whereas tuition is not.

Please consider making your most generous pledge. If each family donated $50 each month, we could meet our important needs. Some of you will be able to give more, others less. We will be grateful for each donation received, and you will know that your financial sacrifice is showing your support for our committed teachers and Seton's mission of teaching the Faith and the truth.

The enclosed form describes the options you have for making your donation. You may use whatever method of payment is most convenient for you.

We ask those of you are unable to make any donation at this time to make a promise of prayers. We need your prayers so that we may continue to form your children in the Faith and in the truth.

Please pray about this matter, and ask God to guide you in your decision. We ask you to fill out the enclosed form and return it to the office at your earliest convenience. We appreciate your cooperation so that we can have one hundred percent response to this appeal. Help us to form this generation of Conquistadors who will defend the Faith and fulfill the Holy Father's call for a new evangelization.

May God grant your family a grace-filled school year.

Sincerely in Christ the King,
Anne W. Carroll, Director

PLEDGE OPTIONS

- If you are paying by automatic debit, you may request that the debit be increased in the amount of your pledge, or you may send in a donation check each month.
- If you have already paid your tuition in a lump sum or are paying in two installments, you may also send in a monthly check, or make a lump sum donation.
- Those paying monthly by check may simply increase the amount of the check or send separate checks.
