

FR. LEOPOLDO VIVES

Will Present

THE FAMILY AS CREATIVE MINORITY

Wednesday November 7, 2018, 7:00 pm

Holy Family Academy
Event Free to the Public

I would say that normally it is the creative minorities that determine the future, and in this sense the Catholic Church must understand itself as a creative minority that has a heritage of values that are not things of the past, but a very living and relevant reality. The Church must actualize, be present in the public debate, in our struggle for a true concept of liberty and peace.

~Pope Benedict XVI

Fr. Leopoldo Vives is the Pastor of Queen of Apostles in Alexandria and a member of the Disciples of the Hearts of Jesus and Mary. Fr. Vives earned a doctorate in sacred theology from the John Paul II Institute in Rome. He was director of the Office of Family and Life Ministry for the Spanish Bishops Conference. Fr. Vives has published eight books and several articles including a book chapter entitled "Family as Creative Minority."

