

While you are praying for an end to the scourge of the coronavirus, don't forget the scourge of abortion. At this point, coronavirus has killed 69 Americans. For perspective, that's approximately the number of Americans killed every 30 minutes through abortion.

Lila Rose of Live Action tweeted last week that abortion is not only a crisis, but is still our nation's greatest crisis. "Abortion clinics remain open today, dismembering and sucking children with beating hearts from their mother's womb," she wrote. "2,363 children will lose their lives today. This continues to be our nation's greatest crisis, yet so many of us are numb to it. It's our 'normal.'" Should we ask for relief from one scourge, without repentance and seeking His mercy for the other. The former may be foisted on us, but the latter is at our volition. I'm wondering if there is more than coincidence between the two!? Lord Have Mercy on Us and On the Whole World.
