ESSAY

One Man Perched on a Rock is the title of Laura Gossin's biography of Dr. Carroll. (She is a mom of many Seton alumni.) She is referencing Catholic hero Pelayo, who stood against the Muslim tide in Spain in the 620's. Dr. Carroll and his co-founders of Christendom stood against the tide of secularism and relativism in higher education in the 1970's. Choose an example from history which shows one man or one woman standing alone or almost alone against the anti-Catholic tide of his or her time. Write an essay of 500-750 words explaining how the person stood against the tide and what were the results of the stand. Include bibliography and documentation. Essays which are not documented will not be considered. Follow MLA format.
