FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MRS. CARROLL

GRATITUDE: On behalf of the faculty, thank you for all the Christmas remembrances: gifts, goodies, cards, and above all Masses and prayers. It always touches my heart to receive such a generous outpouring of love during this beautiful Christmas season.

PERSONAL GRATITUDE: I have even more reason to be grateful given the loving support you showed me during my COVID-19 quarantine. Thanks be to God, I had a mild case. I'm convinced, however, that the speed of my recovery was due to all the prayers offered, all the vitamins and other remedies provided, and all the food delivered. What an incredible community! I have said numerous Rosaries for all those who helped us and will have a Mass offered for all your intentions.

NEW BOOK BY A SETON DAD: Please check out this link for a brief interview of Seton dad, Patrick Novocosky, here. And then buy the book!

CONGRATULATIONS to Helen O'Keefe, who won the American History essay contest sponsored by the Pentagon Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The official prayer of the Year of St. Joseph—To you, O blessed Joseph (Ad te, beate Ioseph)—was composed by Pope Leo XIII in his 1889 encyclical, Quamquam Pluries. The Holy Father asked that it be added to the end of the Rosary especially during October, the month of the Holy Rosary. This prayer is enriched with a partial indulgence (Source: USCCB).

To you, O blessed Joseph (Ad te, beate Ioseph)

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our afflictions, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

All make up work including quizzes, tests, and papers must be completed and turned in by the end of the quarter. All student athletes are reminded of the school's policy regarding Academic Probation: one failing grade results in a two week suspension from team activities including practices and games. After the two week probation, the student will be tracked on a weekly basis throughout the next quarter. Please make every effort before the end of the quarter to discuss with your teacher ways to improve your grade if need be.

"I do not remember even now that I have ever asked anything of [St. Joseph] which he has failed to grant... To other saints the Lord seems to have given grace to succour us in some of our necessities, but of this glorious saint my experience is that he succours us in them all..." (Autobiography of St. Teresa of Avila)
