FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MRS. CARROLL

BISHOP'S MASS CANCELLED: Bishop Burbidge canceled his visit to Seton, scheduled for yesterday, so that he could attend the funeral of Andrew Benson, student at Bishop Ireton, who passed away suddenly and unexpectedly. Please pray for the response of Andrew's soul, for his family, and for Father Noah and the Bishop Ireton High School community.

DONATIONS NEEDED: Ann Benkoski, the hard-working sacristan at All Saints, is helping collect medical supplies and medicines for the suffering people in Venezuela. This is a joint effort with Medical Missionaries and others and the supplies are sorely needed. ANY medical item is accepted, except full oxygen tanks. This includes meds that have expired and anything that is already opened, like tubes of ointments or liquid meds. You can also donate bandages, walkers, crutches- anything!! People are dying there and they are in dire need. Please contact Ann with any questions at 703-677-1497 or email her at abenkoski1@gmail.com

ALSO, Medical Missionaries in Manassas is headed by Dr. Irwin. He is retired but hasn't slowed down to help the poor, as he has done for decades. He is located on Surveyor Court near the PW Hospital. This ministry is in desperate need of a truck or a van (not an SUV but something larger) to transport the donations to various locations. Please offer a prayer that a vehicle will be donated as soon as possible and spread the word. All donations are tax deductible.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE: As many of you know, the pro-life organization 40 Days for Life was instrumental in the closing of the Manassas abortion facility, through its prayers and witness. Mike Baldwin, one of the leaders of 40 Days in Manassas, is now call-video that talks about the closing of the clinic and the power of prayer.

KUDOS to the Foreign Language Department for its foreign language café this week and for introducing us to vocabulary words in all the languages studied at Seton.

ASH WEDNESDAY MASS: Students and staff will attend Mass at Seton on Ash Wednesday. Father Isenberg, Director of Vocations, will be the celebrant.

ing on all of us to provide prayers and witness at the abortion facility in Falls Church to obtain the same results. Please read the article by clicking here. And check out the
