FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MRS. CARROLL

LENT WITH ST. JOSEPH, second installment: Each week during Lent, I will provide a short excerpt from the book The Mystery of Joseph by Marie-Dominique Philippe, O.P. This week's excerpt is from the section "Mary's Consecration." Catholics have traditionally believed that Mary had consecrated herself entirely to God by a vow of perpetual virginity. This week's installment discusses Joseph's role in her living out this vow.

"Joseph could not have known by himself that Mary had made a personal gift of herself to God in this way. But from the very moment Joseph chose Mary and loved her, Mary could only receive this choice and respond to it by communicating her secret to Joseph, telling him that she had surrendered herself totally to God's gracious will for her. Joseph must respect Mary's radical self-abandonment to the Father if he is to take her to be his wife. In choosing her as his wife, he must thus live the same mystery as she does—a mystery of self-abandonment and of total surrender of one's entire life into the hands of the Father. In becoming her spouse, he weds himself to the working of God's spirit within her; he lives her secret, this secret which binds her so personally to the Father. Sharing the same intention is the foundation of their love of friendship—a love which is so divine, so strong, and so unique."

He gives himself to love her in chastity, protecting and providing for her so that she can belong entirely to God, and yet, mysteriously, belonging to him. Is this a hint of what it will be like to be united to one's spouse in Heaven?
