FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MRS. CARROLL

FROM ALL THE FACULTY AND STAFF: May your family have a grace-filled Thanksgiving, as you rejoice in God's many blessings.

ST. ANDREW'S NOVENA: On November 30, the Feast of St. Andrew, we begin the St. Andrew's Novena, otherwise known as the "Hail and Blessed" prayer, found elsewhere in the Sentinel. The custom is to say the prayer 15 times each day through Christmas Eve.

CHRIST THE KING: On Friday, Seton will have its annual Mass and procession in honor of Christ the King. Sunday is the Solemnity of Christ the King. Here is a brief summary of the reasons why we honor Christ the King from Quas Primas, an encyclical by Pope Pius XI.

Jesus Christ deserves the "title of 'King,' because of the high degree of perfection whereby he excels all creatures." He is said to reign "in the minds of men," both by reason of the keenness of his intellect and the extent of his knowledge, and also because he is very truth, and it is from him that truth must be obediently received by all mankind. He reigns, too, in the wills of men, for in him the human will was perfectly and entirely obedient to the Holy Will of God. . . He is King of hearts, too, by reason of his "charity which exceedeth all knowledge."

The "foundation of this power and dignity of Our Lord is rightly indicated by Cyril of Alexandria. "Christ," he says, "has dominion over all creatures, a dominion not seized by violence nor usurped, but his by essence and by nature [as both God and man]. From this it follows not only that Christ is to be adored by angels and men, but that. . .angels and men are subject[to him as man] and must recognize his empire . . .Christ has power over all creatures. But a thought that must give us even greater joy and consolation is this; that Christ is our King by acquired, as well as by natural right, for he is our Redeemer. . .Christ has purchased us "with a great price";[I Cor. 6-20] our very bodies are the "members of Christ." [I Cor. 6:15]

The gospels present this kingdom as one which men prepare to enter by penance, and cannot actually enter except by faith and by baptism. This kingdom is opposed to none other than to that of Satan and to the power of darkness. It demands of its subjects a spirit of detachment from riches and earthly things, and a spirit of gentleness. They must hunger and thirst after justice, and more than this, they must deny themselves and carry the cross.

"When once men recognize, both in private and in public life, that Christ is King, society will at last receive the great blessings of real liberty, well-ordered discipline, peace and harmony."
