FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MRS. CARROLL

KUDOS TO THE SCIENCE DEPARTMENT for our 2022 Science Fair: The high school science fair held this past Tuesday was a great success! Congratulations to Department Chairman Dr. Carpenter, to the biology teachers, Dr. Foeckler and Mrs. Cobos, and to our Life Science teacher, Mrs. Salas. Thanks to all those who helped, especially the volunteer judges, those that provided food, and those that coordinated all the efforts. And, of course, I'm proud of the students who put so much effort into their projects.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Seton Swim Team. Both the boys and girls teams finished third swimming against Division I schools in the Northern Virginia Catholic Invitational Meet.

Only O'Connell and St. Paul VI finished ahead of our swimmers. Congratulations Coach Koehr and all your assistant coaches and thanks to all the parent volunteers who make the meets run so smoothly.

PRO LIFE WITNESS: Again, Seton had a great pro-life witness at the March for Life. Please continue to pray and make sacrifices for the pro-life cause. Being pro-life is not a once a year activity but a consistent dedication to working and praying for the protection of the right to life of every human person.

AD CAMPAIGN: Not much time left to meet your family goal. We depend on the ad campaign to keep our tuition low, and we're grateful to all of you who are doing your part.

THANK YOU to the Seton music department for the delayed but still wonderful Christmas concert last Sunday. Miss Vicent's chamber choir and Miss Erwin's jazz band, beginner and advanced bands, and chorus provided a great variety of thoroughly enjoyable music.

ANOTHER THANK YOU to PRO for the annual Christmas faculty luncheon today.

A MEDITATION FOR THE FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION, FEBRUARY 2: ' Jesus is taken to the Temple to be offered to the Father, although, being God, He was not subject to the prescription of the Jewish law....He is the Victim who will be immolated for the salvation of the world. His presentation in the Temple is, so to speak, the offertory of His life; the sacrifice will be consummated later on Calvary....O Jesus, through the hands of Mary, I wish to offer myself today with You to the eternal Father. ...O Virgin most pure, lead me along the way of a serious, and thorough purification; accompany me yourself, so that my weakness will not make me faint because of the roughness of the road.' [from Divine Intimacy by Father Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalene, O.C.D.]

CANDELMAS CANDLES

SUGGESTED DONATION IS $3 A BOX FOR TWO BLESSED CANDLES.

On Candlemas, many Christians (especially Anglicans, Methodists, Lutherans, Eastern Orthodox Christians, and Roman Catholics) also bring their candles to their local church, where they are blessed and then used for the rest of the year; for Christians, these blessed candles serve as a symbol of Jesus Christ.
