FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MRS. CARROLL

HELP THE MISSIONARIES OF CHARITY HELP THE POOREST OF THE POOR: Here's an important message from Seton alumni mom, Anne Geiran, on how you can help Mother Teresa's Missionaries of Charity:

There is an UNPRECEDENTED OVERWHELMING NEED in DC right now to feed both the body and the soul of many people. The Missionaries of Charity have asked for coats for kids. WHAT: winter coats for ages 2 thru 16; new or used. WHERE: drop off at the Geirans [8786 Peabody St, Manassas, VA 20110] on porch any time. Glad to have you join in DC trip to deliver the coats. If you want to go to DC—text Anne at 7038955266 WHEN: drop off any time BUT THURSDAY SEPT 22 12:30 - 2:30 come over for coffee, scones and Chaplet and bring any coat if you can and prayer requests.

May you be blessed for your love for the poor! Questions? Text Anne. Saint Mother Teresa, pray for us!!

CALLING ALL ALUMNI: Seton mom Nancy Bauer is coordinating efforts to increase our alumni data base. If you have alumni children or know other alumni, please send their contact info (emails and cell phone numbers) to: alumni@setonschool.net. Thanks for your help!

SPEAKING OF ALUMNI: I have received many heartwarming messages from Seton alumni on the occasion of my 80th birthday. Click here for an email from Bryan Muench, Class of 1991. The letter he mentions was sent not long after he graduated, summarizing how Seton had helped him cope with the challenges he met while in the navy.

A BEAUTIFUL NOTE: Liz Violet, wife of beloved cross country coach Dennis Violet, who died earlier this month, has sent a message to the Seton community, which can be found below.
