FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MRS. CARROLL

PUBLICITY: Last week's Arlington Catholic Herald carried an article on the 25th anniversary of the We Are Catholic petition, led by the Seton Class of 1997. Click here to read it. The article is a condensed version of the two-part article in the Seton Inquisitor, written by sophomore Emma Fox. I encourage you to read these articles if you have not already done so. The article in the Herald had an error in the photo caption, identifying the two authors of the petition. Bill Powell is second from the left, and Jason Torres is center back directly in front of the Christ the King statue.

MORE PUBLICITY: In the next Herald, the issue for Catholic School Week issue, expect to see an article on the Seton Swim Team's Cystic Fibrosis Swim-a-Thon. I encourage you to read this article but also to go to the swim team's website, setonswimming.org, and read Coach Jim Koehr's inspiring blog. Seton School has always set a standard of excellence in every aspect of the school's life, and the Swim Team is meeting that standard as the swimmers are challenged to do more than they think they can. I also recommend his Jan. 18 blog. Scroll down past the results to the heading "Kids Are Anti-Fragile" and read that section. Here is a quote from that section that explains the Swim Team's philosophy and Seton's as well. "Like steel hardened in the forge or clay hardened in the sun, some things get stronger with stress. That describes, as well as I have ever heard, how our kids get stronger too. When we as parents constantly shield our children from hardship or adversity or any sort of anxiety, we are actually denying them an opportunity to become stronger. Yes, it is hard to watch sometimes, but the stress caused by intentionally allowing your child to suffer makes us stronger parents as well."

TOGETHER WE MARCH FOR LIFE 2023: If you are unable to attend, please say extra prayers—Mass, Holy Hour, Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet, or another personal devotion—that the Culture of Life will triumph over the Culture of Death in our society.

SPIRIT AD CAMPAIGN: Are you selling ads? Are you getting donations? Are you helping keep your tuition low? Are you encouraging your children to show their support for their school by helping sell ads? All of the above? Thank you! Keep up the good work.
