Check out the ASJB App

The ASJB App allows students to search Catholic Campus Ministries at colleges and universities all over the country, ask the ten best questions when visiting a ministry, and save information about the respective ministries visited. The ASJB app is a great way to ensure that the faith plays a role in the college decision-making process. For more information, visit <https://www.asjb.org/app>. (*ASJB - Associates of St. John Bosco - is an all-volunteer non-profit organization located in the Northern Virginia area that enables rising college students to transition into their college years and keep their Catholic faith at the very center of their lives.)
