FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, MRS. CARROLL

GRATITUDE I: For “White Christmas,” a spectacular achievement, truly Seton at its best. If I listed all those responsible, it would take up the rest of the Sentinel. If you came to the musical, you know what I mean, but look over your playbook again to see how many people—students and adults—were responsible for the brilliance of the show. If you were unable to attend, I strongly recommend that you pick up a copy of the playbook and just look it over.

GRATITUDE I continued: Special notice must be given to Miss Mary Kate Vander Woude, who was not the least bit daunted by a cast of 178. She gave all of them their chance to shine. She will be the first to say that many, many people contributed to the musical’s success. But someone had to be in charge and have the vision, the determination, and the skills to bring this production to birth.

GRATITUDE I concluded: To the “costume ladies,” led by Mrs. Lynne Morrison, Mrs. Christi Brox, and Mrs. Heather Allen, assisted by (by my count) 56 others. The costumes were one of my favorite aspects of the show.

GRATITUDE II: To everyone who made this the most successful Ad Campaign in Seton’s history, raising over $79,000.

GRATITUDE III: Once again to Maureen and Bob Campbell, for transforming the courtyard cross into a Resurrection symbol, for the Resurrection banner at the chapel entryway, and for other Resurrection symbols and messages throughout the school. Resurrexit sicut dixit!

GRATITUDE IV: Sister Mary Mercy (sister of Maryan Vander Woude, Sus Haggerty, and Nancy Bauer), who spoke to some of our classes on Tuesday.

YEAR OF PRAYER: The next several entries will be taken from Divine Intimacy, Chapter 146, Prayer: Prayer is essentially an intimate conversation with God in which the soul seeks His presence, so that it may speak with Him in a friendly and affectionate way. It is a child talking with its Father, a friend conversing with his Friend. From its very nature, then, prayer is something intimate and interior. “For me,” said St. Therese of the Child Jesus, “prayer is an uplifting of the heart, a glance toward heaven, a cry of gratitude and of love, in times of sorrow as well as of joy.”

SAVE THE DATE! ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE TO THE MOTHER SETON SHRINE: Our annual school pilgrimage to the Shrine of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Emmitsburg, Maryland, will take place on May 5 starting with Mass at 9:00 AM. Details are forthcoming!

CLASS OF 2024 HONORS GRADUATES: The Valedictorian is Nicholas Vander Woude. The Salutatorian is Amelia Geary. Congratulations Nick and Amelia!

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE NEWLY INDUCTED MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY. The list of names is posted outside both offices.
