FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

THANK YOU: To all who participated in the Technology Free Day and All-Night Adoration last week. Also many thanks for all the generous contributions to the Lenten Cross. The Cross will be picked up on April 17, so you still have time to take more tags.

SEE YOU AT THE MUSIC MAN!

LENTEN MEDITATION: The business of this life should not preoccupy us with its anxiety and pride, so that we no longer strive with all the love of our heart to be like our Redeemer, and to follow his example....Who cannot recognize in Christ his own infirmities? Who would not recognize that Christ's eating and sleeping, his sadness and his shedding tears of love are marks of the nature of a slave? It was this nature of a slave that had to be healed of its ancient wounds and cleansed of the defilement of sin. For that reason the only-begotten Son of God became also the son of man....The body that lay lifeless in the tomb is ours. The body that rose again on the third day is ours. The body that ascended above all the heights of heaven to the right hand of the Father's glory is ours. If then we walk in the way of his commandments, and are not ashamed to acknowledge the price he paid for our salvation to a lowly body, we too are to rise to share his glory. —Pope St. Leo the Great, De Passione Domini
